CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 1 25X1A PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A REMARKS 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Measurements of a lation in Measurement of the installation was occupied by the rear detail of a lation in Measurement of the measurement of the detail of a lation was recain. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben. Da. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battallon prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area,  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperio factory on Hafenstras and Geethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth of the Measurement of the St. Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, prosumably at the Keenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. The 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were	THE STATE OF THE S	/	Approve	ed For R	elease 2	001/03/05 	: CIA-RE	P82-00457F	₹0062633
COUNTRY Soriet Zone of Germany REPORT NO. TOPIC Military Information from Meissen CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED ATE PREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES I ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) SOURCE 1. 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Medisson-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rest detail of a take unit. Section had formerly housed the German II RV Mtx Arty En of the Moth Arty Reg. * 2. The acuthern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Oben. En. 3. The seatern section of the installation prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was pushed by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with task insigns. Local residents said that the installation was coupied by a tank unit. Only two (rouse of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet trunk repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafemarkas and Goothestrasses, about 1 km north-morth? The Discussion of the installation in Jaschendor the proper of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet trunk repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafemarkas and Goothestrasses, about 1 km north-morth? The licinsen main railroad station. Two Tilt tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A soviet trunk repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafemarkas and Goothestrasses, about 1 km north-morth? The billicting area was counted by component of the troops quartered in the billicting area was reported to be occupied by about the former indicates that only to proper provides the part and by the former Imperior of the proper recruits who later of 30 colored 10 former 1915. 5. The down at a largely regarded to components of the part and by the former inc	7			CLAS	SIFICATIO	N SECRET	-CONTROL/	US OFFICIALS	S ONL
CONFIDENTIAL EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED 25X1A REFERENCES 25X1A REMARKS 25X1A SOURCE 1X 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Medissen-Bohnitasch (N 52/7 09) was occupied by the rear dotail of a This barracks section had Tornerly housed the German II Nv Mts Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg., * 2. The southern section of the installation was vecant. Local residents said that the throops previously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben. Hn. 3. The castorn section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentrics who were red-bordered black spaulate with tank insignts. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffice were observed in the billoting area. * 5. A Soviet traffic were observed in the billoting area was occupied by a charman and continuous proper of the billeting area was completed by Sulpider report indicates that the elements of the 9½ in must buy believed to stationed in the billoting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbreak two previous grounds. It is probable the throops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds at the special country. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9½ in most one of the country reports. See This december is the by regarded to Connect. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the Pill and the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds of 22 September 1950. The follower is to be broop training grounds on 22 September 1950. The follower is to be observed		RY_	Sovie	t Zone o	f Germany	 	and a spin district of the spin spin spin spin spin spin spin spin	REPORT	NO
EVALUATION F-2 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE OF CONTE DATE OBTAINED DATE FREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES 25X1A REMARKS	TOPIC_		Mili	tary Info	rmation		AND THE RESERVE THE PERSON NAMED IN			illen Mille Mariania (1888 – 1887). Širėja se di Skrambio per Millen andrė, surestanta segui.
DATE OF CONTE DATE O					· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	CON	FIDEN"	 	·	minestillingstillingstillingstad delter social, "Blades likekonorie (Likekonorie).
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 19 Cetebor 1950 REFERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) 25X1A SOURCE 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meisson-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a lation in Meisson-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had Tornerly housed the German II IN Mts Arty En of the both Arty Regres * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben.Bn. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battallion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendor's was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spoulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperte factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km northernorth 6the bicissen main reliroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about the troops of in June and July 1950 according to another sources. See 253 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Dity, believed to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Dity in October 1919. These units were prevant—the the troop training grounds. 5. Cornent. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Dity in October 1919. These units were prevant—the the form tanks grounds are 25 september 1950. The factor of Cathai Intolegance to the Archwise of the 1918 forms the October 1919. These units were prevant—the little of 10 october 1919 form the Director	EVALUA	TION	 	F-2		_PLACE OF	BTAINED			25X1A
DATE PREPARED 19 October 1950 REFERENCES PAGES ENCLOSURES (No. & TyPE) SOURCE 1. Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/7 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had Townerly housed the German II By Mts Arty Bn of the both Arty Regy. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben.Bn. 3. The cestern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignis. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area,  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperio factory on Hafenstress and Goethestresse, about 1 km north-north of the licissen main reliroad station. The OTH tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 250 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by compenents of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were previous reports. See The Schwent The billeting area was reported to be occupied by compenents of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were previous reports. See The Schwent of the Units Essentian Reports on 22 September 1950. The security of the Units Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by compenents of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were previous reports. See	DATE O	F C	ONTE				25X1	A	historia Malauro como como	Northwest (Michigan College of the C
SOURCE 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (R 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Oben. Ba. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battallon prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was quarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulats with tank insignie. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billoting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-morth fifthe blicksen and railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  600 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See 1950, procumply at the Koenigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the elements of the 92% Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the P1 Tank Div in October 1919. These units were proving. See 81A 81A 81B Commont. The northern section of the billeting grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were cervitie who later also went to the troop training grounds. 81A 81B Commont. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 81B Commont. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 81B Commont. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See	DATE O	BTAI	NED_						October	1950
REMARKS SOURCE 1. Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitssch (N 52/F 09) was occurried by the rear detail of a lation in Meissen-Bohnitssch (N 52/F 09) was occurried by the rear detail of a men and the barracks section had formerly housed the German II by Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops previously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben. Im. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentrics who wore redbordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area,  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goe thestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main rullroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Goe thestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main rullroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the plant greaman. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the minute of the billeting area was reported to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950, were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 5. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 6. A Comment. The tank repa	REFERE	ENCE	:S						mente marina de la compansa de la co	ett erne mantallikkinger er itter i innbrissen som i var er erne med er
SOURCE 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bolmitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section in Meissen-Bolmitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben.Bm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras and Costhestrasse, about 1 km northernorth of the biletises main reliroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A Comment. The morthern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Divy helicuped to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumbly at the Koemigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable the theory quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 5. A solution of the United Season of the policy of the Gaman T Class. 6. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Divy ho October 1999. These units were separate. 6. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 6. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See	PAGES.			_ENCLOS	URES (NO	. & TYPE)		- Wild William and Margar and Agent Street Building and Agent Street B	25X1A
SOURCE 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meisson-Bohntzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tenk unit. Section had Tormerly housed the German II Nv Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Oben En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic ware observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Gosthestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Licissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yerd,  5. A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops In June and July 1950 according to another source. See 250 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Divy believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemicsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troop quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 5. The stank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 1. The document is broopy regarded to Converse to 1950 comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the Psh Tank Divy No Colover 1940. These units were "reparant." 5. The document is broopy regarded to Decument for missing grounds on 22 September 1950. 1. The document is broopy regarded to Converse of Cadwar	REMARI	KS_	alayla a ayan mara jila da kan kan ka kan ka						- M
SOURCE 1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II Nv Ntz Arty En of the loth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn. En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epuals to with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Gesthestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main rellroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about to troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be councied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reported to be comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reported. See 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 11 Decement. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 12 Decement. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See								,
Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Regular section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Regular section had formerly quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battellon prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignta. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperic factory on Hafenstrass and Gesthestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Lieissen main rullroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 000 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. XIA  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— The desurant is halvely regard to Component. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See The desurant is halvely regard to Component of the Control Holligence to the Archysis of the United States area. SEDET-CONTROLAE Market										ARY
Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Regular section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Regular section had formerly housed there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.En. 3. The sastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battellon prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black spaulets with tank insignta. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperic factory on Hafenstrass and Gesthestrasse, about 1 km north-northwoff the Meissen main rullroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5X1A  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. X1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— In the decompant is knowly repaired to Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See  Comment. The tank repairs shop is known from previous reports. See  This decompant is knowly repaired to Comment and content of the Unite						ina ingkan a Antonoma ang pan-Pinas di				egistering annung annung dies der er einstellich der eine eine der eine der eine der eine der eine der eine de
1. Detween 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks insection in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. 1. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the Loth Arty Regg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.En. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battallon prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billicting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperic factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard,  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koemigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who be stationed in the billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were symmetric that the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were symmetric that the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. S	· Difference of the Control of the C	P	CONTRACTOR DE CONTRACTOR D	Na turbu Mitter ayan in d				haadada taana maalaa ah ka		Mild Mild Mild Mild Comment of your advisory constrained participands comment of participands of the second comments of the second commen
1. Between 20 and 22 September 1950 the northwestern section of the barracks installation in Meissen-Bohnitzsch (N 52/F 09) was occupied by the rear detail of a tank unit. The barracks section had formerly housed the German II Nv Mtz Arty En of the hoth Arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn. Bm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epoulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperic factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  5. A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. 5. A Soviet tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See The decrease is known to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. The security is known to the believe of 10 October 1919. These units were grown. See	SOURCE	E
tank unit. Section had formerly housed the German II Hv Mtz Arty En of the both arty Reg. * 2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had loft. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn. Im. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battelion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Heissen main railroad station. Two Talt tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 600 troops in Ju		l.	Between	20 and 2	2 Santani	ham 1050 4	ha mandle	mand ones
2. The southern section of the instellation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops previously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the Cerman IV Arty Obsn.Bm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north bit he licitsen main railroad station. Two T31 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  5. A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about to troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds to be compled by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were proparent— 1. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were proparent— 1. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 1. The comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See 1. The comment is known to get a superior of calculation to Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports.			Tagrou :	n meisse	n-Bohnit:	zsch (N 52	2/F 09) w	estern sect s occupied	on of the re	ear detail of a
2. The southern section of the installation was vacant. Local residents said that the troops proviously quartered there had left. This barracks section formerly quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.Bm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north "Fit the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north "Fit the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  6. Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 500 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 250 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troop quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 6. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— 1	(1A		OSHER CHIL	.0.						Bra harmanales quartered the German IV Arty Obsn.lm. 3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were red-bordered black epsulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Goe thestrase, about 1 km north-north of the bicissen main rathroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  5X1A * Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbruck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. X1A         *	2	2。	The sout	hern sec	tion of	the instal	lation wa	s wecant	Local mac	danta and dank
3. The eastern section of the installation has been vacant for a long time. It was built for a horse-drawn artillery battalion prior to the war. 4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who were redbordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras, and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Medissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard,  5. A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25) Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Keenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. XIA  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— XIA Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Decement No. No Canage In Class. No Can			the tro	ps previ	ously qua	artered th	nere had]	left. This	barracks	section formerly
4. The barracks installation in Zaschendorf was guarded by sentries who wore redbordered black epaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic wore observed in the billeting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperic factory on Hafenstras, and Gosthestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Leissen main railroad station. Two T3h tanks were being worked on in the yard.  5.X1A Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 255 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. 3.X1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were reparently still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Document Documen		3。 '	The east	ern se c t	ion of th	ne install	ation has	s been vacan	t for a l	ong time. It was bordered black spaulets with tank insignia. Local residents said that the installation was occupied by a tank unit. Only two groups of six or seven soldiers and no motor traffic were observed in the billcting area.  5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperio factory on Hafenstras, and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  (SX1A         		1	built fo	or a hors	e-drawn a	artillery	battalion	prior to the	he war.	.out offices It was
A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstrass and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Lieissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment.* The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25% Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment.* The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were amparent— In the document. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were amparent— In the document is known to the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950.  Comment.* The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is known to the Archivist of the United Scalascarios. SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICENCE.	1	4.	The barn bordered	acks ins	tallation	n in Zasch	endorf wa	as guarded by	y sentrie	s who wore red-
5. A Soviet tank repair shop was located in the former Imperie factory on Hafenstras and Goethestrasse, about 1 km north-north of the Meissen main railroad station. Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  25X1A  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. X1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were reparent— 1			ration A	ras occup	led by a	tank unit	only t	WO Cropps of	f str or	dd that the instal seven soldiers and
Two T34 tanks were being worked on in the yard.  Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25 Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds. Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparently still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. X1A  This decreast is bareby regarded to Confidential in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intolligence to the Archivist of the United States of the		•	110 110 001	orarile	Met.e Ops	served III	tue pitte	Ting area.	4*
Comment. The northern section of the billeting area was occupied by about 600 troops in June and July 1950 according to another source. See 25% Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— ly still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950.  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This decurrent is known from the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intolligence to the Archivist of the United States of the September 1950. SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICIALS (NAT)	2	,	~~~ ~~ ·	4100 07 999	G 4 GPOGTO	T I'M HOL	APHIOLEIL C	u the Weissi	perio fac en main r	tory on Hafenstras ailroad station.
Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were present— It still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. X1A  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See Decument No Change in Class. Report of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the SECRET-CONTROL/US OFFICIALS 1997.			100 134	tanks we	re cemg	worked on	in the j	ard. ***
Subject report indicates that the elements of the 9th Tank Div, believed to be stationed in the billeting area, were still away from the post on 22 September 1950, presumably at the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds. It is probable that the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1919. These units were apparent— 1v still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. X1A  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is helpby regarded to Consider that in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United Sedas carrow. SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICIAL INVIDENTIFY.	25X1A	*	600 troc	ps in Ju	ne and Ju	11V 1950 a	ccording	to another	さついかのの	See OCY
the troops quartered in the barracks installation in July 1950 were recruits who later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— In still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950.  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United September 1970. SECRET—CONTROL/US OFFICIAL TOWN.		ì	Subject	report i	ndicates	that the	elements	of the Oth	Cank Div.	helierred to be later also went to the troop training grounds.  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent— In still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950.  Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is hereby regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 10 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of Tank SECKET—CONTROL/US OF TELLIFICATION.		-	ryou, pr	esumadly.	at the K	oenicsbru	eck troor	itraining o	ennnde	It is nuchable the the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent ly still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. X1A  Comment. The billeting area was reported to be occupied by components of the 9th Tank Div in October 1949. These units were apparent ly still at the troop training grounds on 22 September 1950. X1A This decument is helply regarded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States of the SECRET CONTROL/IS OF TICKLE 1993.			later al	ps quart so went	ered in t	ne barrac	ks instal	lation in A	ıly 1950	were recruits who
X1A X1A Comment. The tank repair shop is known from previous reports. See This document is hereby regarded to Confidential in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Control. (15 OFFICE ALL IN 1972) SECRET—CONTROL. (15 OFFICE ALL IN 1972) SECRET—CONTROL. (15 OFFICE ALL IN 1972)	X1A		Co	ment.	The bill	eting are	a was rep	orted to be	occupied	by components of
This decreant is hereby regarded to CONFIDER HAL in accordance with the letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Carros. SECRET CONTROL IN STATES IN SECRET CONTROL IN SECRET CONTRO			lv still	at the	troop tra	dining gro	unds on 2	2 September	1950.
This degree is hereby regraded to CONFIDERTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Carros. SECRET—CONTROL/US OF TICENTY TO SECRETARY		乔兴 势	Co	rment.	The tank	repair sh	op is lone	wn from prev	rious rep	orts. See
This document is licioby registed to CONFIDERS AL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Carros. SECRET-CONTROL/US OF TEXTS TOWN	(17 (X
CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 18 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United Stolescoation. SECRET-CONTROL/US OF TICKLES TOWN	Γ			Company Control of the Control of th		7		Document N		2)
letter of 13 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States Control. (IS SECRET—CONTROL.) IS SECRET—CONTROL.	Į.	CON	FIDENTIAL	in accorda	nce with the	•	•	No Change	n Glass	X
Archivist of the United States SECRET-CONTROL/US OF TICKED TOWN		letter	of 18 C	clober 197	3 from the			Deckalsik	1 10 T	s s c
Next Review Date: 2008 By: O							-control/	of richis	TOWN A	2
		Next	Review D	ate: 2003		」/		Date:	×671	By: (2)